

THOUSANDS LISTEN TO CALL OF LINKS

Local Golf Courses Crowded
All Day Owing to Mild
Weather Conditions.

PLAY TWO COMPETITIONS

All of the golf and country clubs in the metropolitan district which keep their courses open for play during the winter—and the number which do not is growing smaller each year—were almost swamped yesterday by the throngs of golfers who were lured to the links by the rare combination of holiday and springlike weather.

The winter forces of servants and caddies had to be augmented at short notice in order to accommodate the golfers, and at the Englewood Country Club the caddie master sent out ninety-two boys during the day, a number which exceeded only on exceptional occasions in the height of the going season. Grantland Rice celebrated the famous birthday by scoring a 72.

At several club competitions were arranged and attracted good field. At Lakewood, the local Welshmen's Invitational tournament was held, and a number of golfers from New York were among the entrants. George Lord of Rockaway won the gross prize with a score of 87, and L. J. Hollister of the home club took the net prize with a score of 83.

At the Great Neck golf club a scratch competition was arranged. Eighteen holes were played, but six holes did not count in the score, the holes eliminated not being announced until all the cards had been turned. Charles Ziegler won with a score of 56 from the twelve holes, and H. B. Martin and R. M. Tarleton tied for second place at 54.

Although no competition was arranged, the Montauk golfers reported that the members played around the eighteen hole course. The public links in Van Cortlandt Park were crowded all day. Never since the introduction of the game into this country have so many golfers turned out at this season of the year in the Metropolitan district.
